Sessions

It is great for any child or adult to take a class in a musical instrument. However, it is a different thing entirely to have the confidence to play as part of a group. Our aim is to provide a place where everyone is welcome to play along together no matter their standard with nor pressure.

As the branch grows and pupils get a few tunes together, we will start to hold informal sessions in the school while classes are ongoing. This will mean that pupils can pop in and out of the session room between, before or after their classes.

We will also aim to have both an adult and a junior session monthly or at least every six weeks or so. As the branch is new we wont have our first session until April/May The dates for these can be found above. Children's sessions will be held in Ardgillan castle and will be closed to members and their parents only. Adult members of our branch are also welcome to attend. A venue for the adult sessions has vet to be confirmed.
